The Open University

Statement of participation

Roberto Savinelli

has completed the free course including any mandatory tests for:

English grammar in context

This 15-hour free course looked at the way grammar can be used as a tool for adapting our communications (both written and spoken).

Issue date: 22 December 2021

Please go to the course on OpenLearn for full details:
https://www.open.edu/openlearn/education-development/education/english-grammar-context/content-section-0

COURSE CODE: E303_1

English grammar in context

Course summary

What are the differences between spoken and written English? Is use of grammar more or less complex than it appears? This free course, English grammar in context, looks at the way grammar can be used as a tool for adapting our communications (both written and spoken). This OpenLearn course will help you to see how language is intertwined with both describing a view of the world and interacting with others in that world.

Learning outcomes

By completing this course, the learner should be able to:

- Understand the differences between spoken and written English
- Understand the factors that influence use of grammar and vocabulary in speech and writing
- Understand the different ways in which grammar has been described.

Completed study

The learner has completed the following:

Section 1

Why study grammar?

Section 2

Developments in grammatical description

Section 3

Grammar and contextual variation

Section 4

Conclusion